

MR. E. BUNDY

It was a sad day for all of us when Mr. Bundy died and we have lost one of our Parish personalities and an original resident of Harcourt Road. Although an unassuming man and disinclined to push himself forward, he was nevertheless picked again and again when a job needed to be done well. He could be relied on and was not one of those who throw their hand in when things get difficult.

Perhaps I knew him best as a Parish Councillor for some 20 years. His counsel always commanded respect and his abilities as Treasurer kept us from getting into trouble with the District Auditor. I well remember him labouring lustily on the creation of the War Memorial site and helping to care for it for the next dozen years.

For a very long time he was a member of the P.C.C. and our choir master and was so successful that having a choir at all was almost taken for granted. Somehow he managed to get results in this perhaps most difficult of all jobs.

He was a keen and helpful member of the Horticultural Society and on its Committee.

For the last two or three years he had to take things easy and so we all know what has been involved in filling the vacancies he left.

He put more into the Parish than he can ever have taken out, but in doing so he won our affectionate regard and respect.
