

20. Boveney } View of frank pledge of Elizabeth Garrard, widow, "Cisteriensis" } held there the 23rd April 161(2) and in the tenth year of the reign of King James of England, France & Ireland and the 4() of Scotland, by Rowland Hyne, esq., Steward there.

Essoins: Nil.

Homage : } James Ford, Robert Oliver, Robert Coxe, William for the } King) Wetherhed, John Rose, Richard Aleward, John Howe, Thomas Symons, Thomas Dolling, Richard Haslett, Richard Foster, Richard Seddyn, William Shepperd, and George Poole; sworn.

6d.
 The Jurors present that William Mountagew, gent.,
 6d. 2d.
 Roger Cranolle and William Oliver are residents within this leet and owe suit of court and have made default.
 Therefore each of them is in mercy as appears over his head.

Also they present that the inhabitants having metes within this our leet have forfeited to the lord 20s.
 and the aforesaid inhabitants have no (?) fences within the town and leet aforesaid, therefore they are in mercy as appears over the head of the inhabitants of this leet.

21. Boveney. Court baron of Dame Elizabeth Garrard, widow, held there 12th April, 1⁶12, as above.

Essoins: William Clarke, knight, is essoined as usual.

Homage: William Wetherhed, Robert Coxe, Richard Seddyn, Robert Olicer; sworn.

Liberty of } The Homage, present that William Clarke, kt., holds free tenants) of the lord of this manor a parcel of land ()

West Harris in parish of Burneham in free socage by fealty, suit of court and annual rent of four shillings and four pence; likewise they present that Henry Bell, gent., holds of the lord of this manor a tenement or farm with appurtenances called le Weeke in free socage by fealty, suit of court and annual rent of 20d., as appears by the rental shewn to them; and likewise they present that Thomas Eyre holds a half-acre of land in the parish of Burnham of the lord of this manor in free socage by fealty, suit of court and annual rent of 15d.; and also they present that the Churchwardens of Burnham hold in free socage of the lord of this manor a house in Burnham called the Church House by fealty, suit of court and annual rent of 4d., as appears by the rental shewn to them.

Recognizance) of free tenant)

At this court James Ford acknowledges that he holds of the lord of this manor a messuage with appurtenances and two acres of land, more or less, lying in fields of Dorney & Boveney in free socage by fealty, suit of court and annual rent of 4d., whereof one acre lies in North field abutting at North on land of Dean & Canons of Windsor, South on King s (? highway) leading from Maidenhead to Windsor & East upon the acre of the Lady Garrard () the field of Boveney and half an acre lies in a field called Foxes abutting East (Dean) and Canons of Windsor & West on the land of Richard Foster, and ray lane gate () the one edge, and the other half acre lies in a field called Somerton abutting on () Ditch on the West and East on the way called the Old Way and North and South on the (? land of)

Dame Garrard; and the aforesaid James Ford does his fealty to the lord.

22. Dorney. Court baron of Dame Elizabeth Garrard, held there the 12th April, 1612, and in the tenth year of King James by Rowland Hyne, esq., Steward there.

Essoins: William Clarke, kt., is essoined as usual.

Homage for) Thomas Dolling, Richard Aleworthe, Richard Norris, lord of manor) Richard Seddin, Daniel Field, and John Carew, sworn.

Fine. ^{6d.}
The Homage present that Hugh Holland, gent., in right of his wife holds freely of the lord of this manor two closes called Pipers in parish of Burnham and owes suit of court and has made default; therefore he is in mercy as appears above his head.

Ordinance.
(in English)
It is ordered at the court by common consent that all the Jurors and Homagers of the (? Court leet) and Court barons abovesaid shall meet on Tuesday next being the 28th day of this (at the) Cross of Dorney and Boveney to stake out the bounds of the inhabitants of Dorney & Boveney be)tween neighbour and neighbour by six of the clock in the morning of the same day (upon) pain every person that maketh default to forfeit to the lord 2s.6d. and also to () amongst themselves for all the inhabitants as well of Dorney as Boveney every one upon the like pain.

Officers: Richard Foster and James Ford, sworn:
Managers of Nicholas Young, sworn.
the Common
Hayward:

Affeered by the whole Homage,
Examined by Rowland Hyne, Steward there.

(This membrane has been attacked by mice, and some words are missing down the right-hand edge)

Endorsed: Boveney court leet, Boveney (ats) Rokesby, and Dorney court baron, 23 April 1612, and the tenth year of James.

23. Boveney
Cisteriensis (? viz.
mutilated)
leet

View of frank pledge of Dame Elizabeth Garrat, widow, late wife of William Garrat, kt., deceased, held there the ninth day of October in the year of the reign of our lord James, by the grace of God King of England, France & Ireland, Defender of the Faith, the fourteenth and of Scotland the fiftieth. (1616)

Jurors for the King, viz.
the court leet

William Muntigue, gent., John Cox, James Forde, William Wethered, Francis Norris, Richard Alworth, Richard Foster, William Oliver, John Rose, Nicholas
How, John Thatcham, Daniel Field, Roger Cranwell.

First the Homage present on their oaths that they themselves are in default within the jurisdiction of this leet for not making "lour Buttes"^x according to the form of the statute. Therefore they are in mercy, &c.

Also the Homage likewise present on their oaths that they themselves are in default within the jurisdiction of this leet, for not making "lour ^xStokes" according to the form of the statute.

Therefore they are in mercy, &c.

Further the Homage present on their oaths that all is well.

^x / - These phrases are obscure: they may refer to the boundary marks between one property and another which have so often been mentioned. The latin is becoming rather unsteady_7

24. Boveney.

Court baron of Dame Elizabeth Garrat, widow, details and date as in 23, postponed to 2nd December.

Homage for) lord of) manor)

Thomas Dollin, Richard Sidden, Richard Alworth.

Item William Clarke, kt., has made default, therefore he is in mercy 12d.

Item further the Homage present on their oath that all is well.